

Devarana SPA Wins 'Best New SPA (Resort)' in India at the GEOSPA ASIA SPA Awards 2014

New Delhi, April 06, 2015: Devarana Spa at Dusit Devarana New Delhi has won the prestigious award for 'Best New Spa (Resort)' in India for 2014, as voted by AsiaSpa India magazine. The Devarana Spa is inspired by the concept of "the garden in heaven" to excite the senses and makes guests feel truly special. Luxurious pampering and healing treatments are offered in a soothing, stress-relieving environment. The contemporary design and decor entices guests to transcend the everyday world. This sanctum-sanctorum provides a relaxing and welcoming atmosphere to revel in premium spa treatments and wellness therapies. The spa also owns the city's first hammam in addition to aqua yoga facility.

AsiaSpa India announced the winners of the eighth edition of its GeoSpa AsiaSpa Awards recently at a glittering ceremony in New Delhi which was attended by the who's who of the Spa, wellness and hospitality industry of India. AsiaSpa India invited nominations for preferred Spa, Wellness Centers, products, Therapist and more, across 24 categories and winners were chosen based on a third party audit.

On the occasion, Ankur Bhatia, Executive Director, Bird Group commented, "We feel honoured to be recognized and regarded by AsiaSpa India, the foremost voice for the spa and wellness industry in India. At Devarana Spa we are always striving towards offering the best and most exclusive range of services and experiences to our esteemed guests. This award acknowledges the dedication and hard work that has been put in by our team at Devarana Spa."

Considered as the most prestigious recognition in the health and wellness industry, the GeoSpa AsiaSpa India Awards are regarded as a coveted seal of approval in excellence. It provides an excellent boost to the credibility of the winning brand amongst its customers and competitors alike.
